Daniel Riley

CLASS OF 2004

Daniel Riley is a veteran and an athlete. He served as a United States Marine for both the Iraq and Afghanistan conflicts. On December 16, 2010 after stepping on an IED, Daniel sustained injuries resulting in the amputations of both legs above the knee, and part of his left hand. Since then he has been actively involved in sports and recreational therapy. Whether out surfing, biking, or skiing: he is trying to enjoy retirement and a life without limits. Living in Edwards, Colorado, Daniel currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Vail Veterans Program, and has been awarded the Purple Heart, Combat Action Ribbon, and Good Conduct Medal. Daniel is currently enrolled in media studies at Colorado Mountain College.
