Geoffrey P. Alpert

CLASS OF 1965

Originally from Eugene, Oregon, Geoffrey attended Brentwood College School from 1962-1964 at the new Mill Bay campus, before returning to Eugene to complete his senior year of high school. He then attended the University of Oregon where he earned his BA (1969) and MA (1970) then later earned his PhD from Washington State University (1975).

Geoffrey has spent his career working with components of the criminal justice system and academia. Much of his academic career has been spent at the University of Miami and the University of South Carolina. Currently, he is a Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice at the University of South Carolina and holds an appointment at Griffith Criminology Institute at Griffith University in Brisbane, Australia. His specializations at the University of South Carolina include police training, police use of deadly force and police emergency driving.

He is a Chief Research Advisor for the United States Department of Justice, National Institute of Justice. He has taught at the FBI National Academy, the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center and The Senior Management Institute for Police and is currently a Federal Monitor for the New Orleans Police Department and on the compliance team for the Portland, Oregon Police Bureau.

In recent years, Geoffrey has testified to the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing and became a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police Research Advisory Committee and Policy Center Advisory Group.

Geoffrey is the author of 15 books and over 150 articles and peer-reviewed works. For the past thirty years, his research interests have included socialization processes of prison inmates as well as the linkages between researchers and practitioners when it comes to police training and police use of force.
